Dear Membership,

I like to take the opportunity to relay a message from local charities “THANKS”. The thanks come from The Shriners of El Paso, Providence Hospital, Big Brothers and Big Sisters of El Paso and Veterans of Foreign Wars. The Association makes donations to different organization on behalf of the membership thru out the year. Although we cannot give to all the charities we still find those that really need a little help from time to time.

The Association is constantly finding ways to get members and the EPCSOA involved in the El Paso community. Fundraisers such as our Annual Golf tournament is just one example, all proceeds benefit local charities. Officers who are involved with the Special Olympics of Texas are another example. The Association is dedicated in supporting it members' involvement in our community. The Association also made a donation to the “Empowering Women in Law Enforcement Convention”. These efforts help bring out the EPCSOA name to the El Paso community. We are more than a Union; we are the El Paso community!

Again “THANKS” to all the Members of the El Paso County Sheriff's Officers Association.

Jose G. Marrufo Jr.

EPCSOA

President Marrufo makes a donation to Big Brothers and Big Sisters.
