- 1.1.01 The Civil Service System is a systematic method of appointing employees to office and of promoting them for competency and performance. The following rules are designated to delineate and clarify the procedures for administering the Civil Service System on a day-to-day basis for those employees who fall under the jurisdiction of the system.
- 1.1.02 A person who is an employee covered by this Civil Service System, when adopted by the Commission, will not be required to take any competitive examination or perform another act to maintain their present position.
- 1.1.03 Hereinafter, the pronouns he, him, or his are used to signify both male and female individuals, and are used only to condense the language of this text, and are not to be construed to be discriminatory against either sex.

SECTION 2. CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

- 1.2.01 As authorized by Section 158.034 Local Government Code, the Sheriff, District Attorney and Commissioners Court are authorized to make one appointment each to the Sheriff's Office Civil Service Commission. The Commission shall make, publish, and enforce rules relating to: 1) selection, 2) competitive examinations, 3) promotions, seniority and tenure, 4) layoffs and dismissals, 5) disciplinary action, 6) grievance procedures and other procedural and substantive rights of employees, and 7) other matters having to do with selection of employees and their advancement rights, benefits and working conditions. The Sheriff appoints the Chair. All Commission appointees will serve for the duration of the appointed term unless the appointee voluntarily resigns, dies, is unable to continue to serve due to injury or illness or is removed from his position under the provisions of Chapter 87 of Texas Local Government Code.
- 1.2.02 The Civil Service Commission shall hold regular meetings on the first Monday of each calendar quarter (January, April, July, and October) or if such Monday falls on a County's recognized holiday, then on the following Monday and as called by the Chairman of the Commission from time to time. The Commission shall comply with Government code (Open Meetings Act) and shall require two (2) Commission Members to be present to constitute a quorum.
- 1.2.03 The following chapters contain the rules that are presently in force for all employees under the El Paso County Sheriff's Office Civil Service System and approved by the Civil Service Commission.

Commission members will receive agenda and necessary documents at least 5 days prior to the scheduled meeting.

SECTION 4. CHANGE OF RULES

- 1.4.01 These rules may be amended, repealed or supplemented by the Civil Service Commission at any time and new rules may be adopted. Notice of such action shall be issued ten (10) days, exclusive of holidays/weekends, prior to any action by the Commission to amend, repeal, or supplement any of these rules or adopt new rules. The notice shall contain the proposed changes or the proposed new rules and the date and the place at which the Commission will hold a public hearing on such proposals. Additionally, any such applicable collective bargaining agreement is incorporated in these rules for all purposes.
- 1.5.02 Before an employee may seek a remedy to any grievance under the rules, that employee must waive all procedures to secure such remedy under any applicable collective bargaining agreement. Length of service in the class for which the layoff is computed shall include service in any other class deemed by the appointing authority, subject to the approval of the Civil Service Commission, to be equal to, or greater than the employee's current classification. Any employee laid off shall, after timely reinstatement, regain the seniority credit he/she possessed at the time of layoff.

- 2.10.07 If any employee should be laid off as the result of a reduction in force, and if within a period of two (2) years thereafter, a vacancy should occur in the Office and in the same or lower grade, the said employee shall be reinstated in the vacant position, provided such employee meets all qualifications for said position.
- 2.10.08 All employees being reinstated as a result of a reduction-in-force will be entitled to restoration of benefits and their salary level at time of separation.

- 9.2.02 Written Reprimand - To be used when an employee has committed a minor act or omission.
- 9.2.03 Suspension – To be used when an employee has committed a major act or omission, or a series of minor acts or omissions that could be subject to disciplinary action as provided in the disciplinary matrix. - 9.2.04 Demotion - To be used when an employee has committed a major infraction or after repeating a prior disciplined infraction of a less severe nature.
- 9.2.05 Dismissal - To be used when an employee has committed a major infraction or after repeating a prior disciplined infraction of a less severe nature.

When an employee is arrested, charged or indicted for a felony or a misdemeanor involving an act of violence or moral turpitude, the employee shall be placed on Administrative Leave without Pay pending the disposition of the criminal charge. The employee on such leave has the option of applying his accumulated annual leave during this period.
- B. If an employee is under investigation for suspected improprieties, (s)he may be placed on Administrative Leave pending the results of the investigation. If (s)he is placed on such leave, it shall be with pay for a period not to exceed ten (10) work days. Should the investigation take longer and with justifiable reasons given by the investigators, the employee will be allowed to use annual leave of up to ten (10) work days. Thereafter, the employee will be carried Leave without Pay. Should the employee be cleared, all time lost by employee will be reimbursed.
- 9.2.07 An employee may at the discretion of the Sheriff forfeit annual leave in lieu of suspension for a period not to exceed ten days. An election to forfeit annual leave constitutes a waiver of the employee's right to appeal the disciplinary action.
- 9.2.08 Pre-disciplinary Action Notice and Response:
- Notice of disciplinary action shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the affected employee in person or by certified mail as herein provided. When the disciplinary action contemplated is to be a suspension of five (5) days or more, demotion, or termination, the affected employee must be served with a pre-disciplinary action notice to which the employee shall have the opportunity to respond in person or in writing. This written pre-action notice shall be designated Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action and shall include the Civil Service and/or Official rules violated, the date, time and place that the employee violated the rules together with a specific description of the employee's act or omission which violated the rules, and the nature of the discipline being enforced. The Notice shall be personally served upon the employee or sent by Certified Mail to the address he has on file with the Office.

- 9.2.09 Upon receipt of the Notice, the employee has five (5) working days to respond to the allegations contained therein. This response may be in writing or may be made in person to the Sheriff or his designee. The employee is entitled to have representation to assist him in his response, provided, however, that in the event the representative is an Office employee, the representative shall not participate in this process on County time. If the employee elects to respond in person, a meeting shall be conducted as an exchange of information to better clarify the situation in order to determine whether the proposed action is warranted. Consequently the Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action must be thoroughly explained and discussed with the employee to ensure that he understands the nature and background of the charges against him. Furthermore, the employee or representative must be allowed to present a response or rebuttal to the charges or an explanation of the employee's actions, or why the employee feels the proposed action is too severe. Although witnesses may not be summoned into the meeting, the employee may present supporting documentation or affidavits. In cases where the Office and employee reach a consensus and agreement relative to the proposed disciplinary action, no appeal may be taken to the Commission.
- 9.2.10 The employee shall be furnished, by personal service or certified mail, a written notice of discipline, signed by the Sheriff. Such notice shall comply with the requirements set forth in Section 9.2.09 and shall state the conditions and rights to appeal the disciplinary action, including applicable time limits. Except in cases of dismissal, the statement of disciplinary notice shall state that further violations on the part of the employee could result in more severe discipline up to and including dismissal.
- 9.2.11 The employee to be disciplined should acknowledge receipt of statement of discipline. Failure of the employee to acknowledge receipt does not affect the imposition of the disciplinary action. Acknowledgment of receipt does not acknowledge agreement.
- 9.2.12 Disciplinary action for non-criminal activity shall not be initiated against an employee for an infraction which occurred more than 180 days prior to the service of the Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action or written reprimand upon the employee. In disciplinary matters, where the provisions of Section 9.2.08 are not implicated, disciplinary action shall not be initiated for an infraction which occurred more than 180 days prior to the service of the written notice of discipline.
- 9.2.13 An employee will not receive more than one disciplinary action for the same violation.

CHAPTER 10

GRIEVANCE SYSTEM PROCEDURES

SECTION 1. PURPOSE

- 10.1.01 The purpose of the grievance procedure is to settle all grievances between the supervisory personnel and employees as quickly as possible and at as low an administrative level as possible so as to assure efficient work operations and maintain employee morale.

SECTION 2. ELIGIBILITY

- 10.2.01 There are two (2) basic types of grievances; disciplinary action grievances and non-disciplinary action grievances. A disciplinary action grievance is used by an employee who desires to contest disciplinary action. Disciplinary actions subject to the grievance process as defined by Chapter IX are suspensions, demotions and dismissals. Employees shall not have the right to appeal reprimands. Subject to the provisions of these rules, non-disciplinary action grievances are used by an employee who desires to complain of matters such as:

- A. Improper application of rules, regulations and procedures.
- B. Unfair treatment, including coercion, restraint or retaliation.
- C. Discrimination because of race, color, age, religion, gender, gender identification, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, or veteran status.
- D. Application of benefits or working conditions.

Any Civil Service protected employee may process a grievance. Disciplinary action grievances shall be filed individually by the disciplined employee or by his representative. Non-disciplinary grievances may be filed individually or jointly by a group of affected employees or by their personnel representatives.

SECTION 3. FILING NON-DISCIPLINARY GRIEVANCES

- 10.3.01 An employee having a non-disciplinary grievance shall submit it in writing to the Sheriff and copied to the Civil Service Commission, within fourteen (14) days following actual or constructive knowledge of the alleged act, omission, occurrence or event giving rise to the grievance. The Sheriff shall file his decision with the Civil Service Commission in writing within twenty-one (21) days. If the grievance is (1) not granted in writing by the Sheriff, (2) not abandoned in writing by the grievant or (3) not resolved by mutual written agreement, the grievant has fourteen (14) days to request a hearing before the Civil Service Commission. If the Sheriff does not file a response with the Civil Service Commission, the grievance will automatically be set for a hearing before the Civil Service Commission.

SECTION 4. FILING DISCIPLINARY GRIEVANCES

- 10.4.01 A employee having a disciplinary grievance shall submit it in writing to the Civil Service Commission and copied to the Sheriff within fourteen (14) days following the receipt of the order of disciplinary action.

SECTION 5. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

- 10.5.01 The grievant and the Sheriff may agree in writing to extend the time limits set out in Section 3 and Section 4 above. However, if the employee fails to meet the filing time limits, the grievance will be considered null and void, unless good cause is shown.

10.5.02

Upon receipt of the written notice of appeal, the Commission shall hold any hearing relative to the appeal and make any decision known, in writing, to the employee subject to the following procedures:

A. The employee has a right to have a personal representative to assist with the grievance. If the employee has a representative, all communications and notices concerning the grievance between the Sheriff's Office and the employee shall be through the employee's designated representative. The employee and/or his personal representative may not use government time or resources to prepare for the grievance.

B. The grievant shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence in non-disciplinary grievances. In disciplinary grievances, the Sheriff has the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

C. Hearings before the Commission will be set for the next available meeting date that is at least twenty-one (21) days after the grievance is filed. If more time is needed to hear the matter, the Commission may continue the hearing to another date.

D. All parties filing documents with the Commission shall serve a copy of the documents upon the opposing party at the same time. At least seven (7) days prior to the date set for the hearing, all parties shall furnish each other and the Commission with the names of the witnesses to be called, a brief description of the witness' connection to the grievance, and a copy of each document, record, or exhibit to be introduced at the hearing. Each party is responsible for notifying the witness (es) and requesting the presence of its own witness (es). A party cannot rely on the other party's witness list as a guarantee that a witness will be present. The Sheriff shall compel the attendance of any Office employee listed on the grievant's witness list. No party may require the attendance of more than three (3) character witnesses.

- a. In any hearing conducted pursuant to this Chapter, the Chair of the Commission shall, on request of the affected employee, the county attorney, or a designee of the employee or county attorney administer oaths and issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum for the attendance of witnesses and for the production of books, records, documents, papers, accounts, and other tangible things deemed relevant to the controversy by the requesting party, provided the request is filed with the Sheriff's Human Resources Department by the 10th day before the hearing is held.
- b. Any subpoena issued pursuant to the provision of this section shall be delivered to the party requesting the subpoena. The party requesting service shall provide a copy of the subpoena to the other party. The subpoena shall be served by any person authorized to serve process under Texas law.
- c. The requesting party shall file the return with the Civil Service Commission and provide a copy of the return to the other party. Any party or witness objecting to a subpoena may file a Motion to Quash with the Commission, and the Commission shall rule on that motion prior to commencing the evidentiary hearing.

E. When either party requests a continuance, that party shall file a written motion with the Commission, setting forth the grounds upon which such motion is made. Except for good cause shown, any such motion shall be made not less than seven (7) days prior to the scheduled date of the hearing. If both parties agree to the continuance in writing and it is the first continuance of the hearing, the continuance shall be automatically granted and the Director of Human Resources is authorized to postpone the item until the next regularly scheduled Civil Service meeting.

F. A decision by the Commission becomes final upon the expiration of fourteen (14) days from the date the decision is announced in open session by the Commission, unless either party moves to re-open the original decision within that fourteen (14) day period. If a motion to re-open is timely filed, the Commission will have thirty (30) days to decide whether to re-open the original hearing. The Commission may re-open the original hearing upon good cause. If the Commission does not rule on the motion to re-open within thirty (30) days, the decision becomes final.

G. If the motion to re-open is denied, the decision becomes final as of the denial. If a motion to re-open is granted, the Commission shall schedule the matter for hearing for the next regularly scheduled Civil Service meeting and shall designate the issues to be considered at that hearing. Only evidence relevant and material to those issues so designated shall be admissible. The decision by the Commission following this hearing becomes final upon announcement in open session.

10.5.03 If a disciplinary grievance is sustained, an employee is entitled to reinstatement with benefits and back pay commensurate with the Commission's ruling.

SECTION 6. RETALIATION

10.6.01 Employees will not be subject to retaliation or other discriminatory actions on account of their filing a grievance or exercising any other right to which they are entitled. Previous, final disciplinary actions may be considered by the Sheriff for purposes of the application of progressive discipline or promotional considerations.
