EPCSOA Members Newsletter

Good evening to all,

Thank you for signing up to be part of the EPCSOA mailing list. This will be a great tool to communicate with members. I would like to ask for your help with showing other members how to sign up, so we can all be better informed.

As a reminder, the Awards Banquet is this Friday at the Firefighters Hall at 7 pm. Please don't forget to RSVP by Dec 3rd to 204-8385. It will be a great evening together with lots of door prizes, to include cash giveaways and a shotgun! There will be food, music and beer provided - bring your own bottles. There will be no monthly membership meeting this month.

Thank you to everyone that made it out to the last membership meeting. For those of you that couldn't make it, I would like to tell you about some of the things we discussed.

- We have been working hard on the website to make it more informative and useful for the members. It's getting better every day. If you have any ideas to improve the website or if there is something else you would like to see on the website, please don't hesitate to contact James Munoz or Rob Torrez with your ideas.
- The Advisory Committee on Sheriff's Office Relations starts this week. We will meet with the Sheriff once a month to discuss working conditions. Detention Officers and Deputies will be included at the meetings. This is on a voluntary basis. If you are interested in attending a meeting, please let me know.
- We discussed our new committees and changes to the Board. The new committees list is posted on the website. Lt Marvin Ryals was appointed to finish out the term of an open spot on the Board of Directors and he brings a huge amount of knowledge and experience to the County Judge Elect Ricardo Samaniego was in attendance and shared a great message of support for our membership. I have met with him several times and he has continuously expressed his support of Law Enforcement and County Employees.

taken the lead with the website and is doing a great job.

- Scholarship applications are due Dec 31st. You can give them to any Board Member or drop them off to the EPCSOA office.

This is an exciting time to be a member of the EPCSOA. Your Board is excited to work for you. All Board Members have their cell phone numbers on the website. Please let us know if there is anything we can do to better serve you. Have a safe week!
